Passing the CDL written test is very difficult. If interested applicants are left to do this on their own, we lose thousands of potentially great bus drivers. Using this course, either the hard copy or online, we can make the learning easier and more interesting to reduce driver shortages.

Turning applicants into qualified bus drivers is always a challenge. Many great applicants are lost due to the difficulty of passing the CDL written test. This new course has made the training far easier to understand and will increase the success in applicants passing the test the first time.

Practice tests can be taken on a computer to simulate the actual process at the DMV and make the trainee more comfortable.
